FALL FOR ANN ARBOR

Our fall color palette is a glorious spectacle of blazing reds, oranges and golds — the perfect backdrop for an afternoon outdoors in the city or nearby areas:

- Hiking a trail in any of the splendid parks nearby. In addition to the Arb and other local parks, hikers enjoy convenient access to the 36-mile Waterloo Pinckney Trail just west of the city. michmed.org/KDkgz
- Dexter Cider Mill. One of many mills open seasonally, natural cider is pressed from locally grown apples here and offered with an abundance of fresh-baked treats. dextercidermill.com
- Ann Arbor Marathon. The streets of Ann Arbor are turned over to the fleet feet of residents and visitors, starting outside The Big House, then along the Huron River, and crossing the finish line on Main Street. annarbormarathon.com
- Midnight Madness. The first Friday night in December means downtown Ann Arbor's holiday season kickoff with events, entertainment, pop-ups, and of course Galens Medical Society's annual Tag Days fundraiser. mainstreetannarbor.org/midnight-madness

WINTER WONDERLAND

Winter in Ann Arbor offers plenty of fun activities to keep you busy, indoors or out. Our top picks include:

- Staying warm inside any store downtown. There are plenty of cozy spots to choose from, including bookstores of all kinds, specialty shops, cafés, museums, theaters and restaurants. Be sure to check out Restaurant Week. annarborrestaurantweek.com
- Ice skating & ice hockey games. Spectator or player? Find it at Yost Ice Arena. mgoblue.com/yost
- Cross-country skiing & sledding. Ski trails and sledding hills await you, many at no charge. michmed.org/PYngA
- Live performances by artists from home and around the world. The University Musical Society's current season features a variety of music, dance and theater. ums.org/performances

SPRING FEVER

From first thaw to full bloom, this season brings some of the most anticipated events of the year:

- Ann Arbor Film Festival. The longest running event of its kind, this festival brings a world of cinema to the screens of the Michigan Theater every March. aafilmfest.org
- FOOLMoon and FestiFOOL. Ann Arbor original creations, these community arts events kick off the city's outdoor festival season with a parade of larger-than-life puppets. michmed.org/YWG9R
